

Manufacturer's Certification Statement For The American Tax Payer Relief Act of 2012

Environmentally Safe Products, Inc certifies that the following products qualify for the Federal Tax credit for existing homes which is allowed under the American Tax Payer Relief Act of 2012 Homeowners installing ESP Insulation during 2012 or 2013 may receive an energy tax credit for 10 percent of the cost, up to $500.

These tax credits do not apply to consumers building new homes.

To qualify for the Energy Efficiency Tax Credit, an insulation product must be for the sole purpose of insulating one's home. This certification document is required and the insulation must be expected to last for at least 5 years, or carry a 2-year warranty.

Low-E	Econo-E	Micro-E	Low-E HouseWrap
Low-E Tab	Class A White	EZ Seal	Staple Flange
ThermaSheet	SlabShield	Attic Floor Insulation

Under penalties of perjury, I declare that I have examined this certification statement, and to the best of my knowledge and belief, the facts are true, correct and complete.

As always consult your tax preparer to insure that you qualify for this credit.
